PROFESSIONAL SUMMARY

As a Junior Web Developer at Bluehance360 LLP, I have built multiple full-stack websites using the Wix platform with Velo, along with custom-coded solutions. I have also completed several WordPress projects and continue to expand my skills across additional web development tools and technologies. My passion for web development began in my teenage years with HTML and has grown through my college journey and professional experience at Mitr Learning & Media Pvt. Ltd. I am resourceful and constantly focused on writing code that is robust, scalable, and high-performing. I have experience mentoring others and enjoy supporting my teammates. For debugging, I trace issues from the end result back to the source, allowing me to efficiently identify and resolve problems. My ability to break down complex code for easier debugging and enhancement makes me a valuable asset to any development team.
